CAPTURE ANOTHER MILE

British Formulating Plan to Stamp Out German Submarine Pest by Striking at Bases.

London, June 12.—Another mile of German trenches was captured by Gen. Plumer's forces yesterday, the war office report says.

The allied clutch around Central Europe developed strong muscular vibrations yesterday. There were signs that the "big squeeze" is about to set in.

It had been planned at the Rome conference, following the German peace offer. The aftermath of the Russian revolution postponed it. The allies have since revised their route so they may reach their goal without Russia—with the United States. If Russia rallies in the eleventh hour, success will be the more complete. The Petrograd weather vane pointed that way yesterday.

First on the program of the great concerted drive is the crushing of the German right flank in the west. This flank is spread across the rich mines and fertile fields of Northern France and Belgium and reaches out toward England, lurking unseen, but seeing all, from beneath the surface of the Dover Straits and the channel.

To insure success for the "big squeeze," the U-boat menace is to be struck at its nearest roots, the bases in Belgium. To that end, it seemed last night, the British heavy artillery and British raiding forces started early yesterday, preparations for a drive along the coast.

At the same time, Gen. Sarrail got ready for a new drive in Macedonia. "Hurricane fire" was reported by the Sofia war office. Even the reorganized remnants of the Rumanian army did its share, starting a bombardment of Mackensen's lines near the Black Sea litoral.

From Petrograd came reassuring dispatches of loyalty manifestations by the Cossacks and peasants.

Overshadows all else in interest and importance is the now apparent British plan to stamp out the U-boat "pest" where it is most oppressive, most obstinate and pernicious. From the little Belgian port of Zeebrugge the subsea raiders sneak out hourly to snatch away England's food and supplies at the very gates of England's eastern seaports. Innumerable "mosquito" craft on the surface and Zeppelins and airplanes overhead escort them on the first lap of their journey.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Georgia Jury Says Lovelace Killed Miss Kerr and Then Himself.

Rome, Ga., June 12.—The body of Dallas Lovelace, a county school teacher and justice of the peace of Floyd county, was found yesterday near his home at Fosters Bend, 20 miles from here, near where on Sunday Miss Mary Kerr, 20-year-old daughter of W. N. Kerr, a well-to do farmer, was found shot to death. Lovelace died from a pistol wound. A coroner's jury verdict today charged him with the murder of the young woman.

Officers said Miss Kerr formerly was a pupil in Lovelace's school. According to the testimony of a negro woman, he shot and killed Miss Kerr Sunday while holding her in his arms. Officers declared that a Lovelace's home they discovered a note from Lovelace which read: "You will never find me alive. I will do the same thing she did." They interpreted this as a claim by Lovelace that Miss Kerr killed herself.

Lovelace was about 40 years old and leaves a widow and three children. He was a candidate for the legislature at the last election.

PARDONS REFUSED.

Governor Stuart Declines to Interfere in Cases of Violation of Prohibition Law.

Pursuing his declared policy of non-interference with the judgment of the courts in cases arising under the prohibition law, Governor Stuart yesterday refused pardons to three men who have been convicted of violation of the "dry" statute and given the minimum penalty of thirty days in jail and a fine of $50. Their names are Maurice Bacci, of Richmond, William G. Kellum, of Norfolk, and W. W. Simpson, of Alexandria.

RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Effort to be Made to Raise $100,000,000 During Next Week by the American People.

"Red Cross Week" proclaimed by President Wilson, as a period of sacrifice and generosity, and in which the Red Cross will seek to raise a $100,000,000 War Fund, begins Monday, June 18.

In response to many requests, Henry P. Davison, Chairman of the War Council of the Red Cross, makes the following statement: "The Red Cross War Council has been asked to name the specific purposes to which it expects to devote the $100,000,000 which it has asked the American people to contribute between June 18th to 25th, the period the President of the United States has set apart as Red Cross week. The Public is, of course, entitled to as specific a statement on this subject as we are able to make.

"Our first obligation is to render such service as comes within the province of the Red Cross to our soldiers and sailors at home and abroad. Consideration of the vastness of this undertaking alone as compared with any other situation ever known to us will impress one with the impossibility of forming a definite budget or specifying in particular the amounts of money required to care for our own countrymen.

"After making every provision necessary for this purpose, our endeavor will be to supplement the efforts of our Alles in caring for their sick and wounded.

"We shall help provide the bare necessities of life to the homeless in devastated France; to aid them to rehabilitate themselves and thus strengthen the man power of the French army.

"We shall strive to hearten Russia, by providing additional ambulances and other relief for the sick and wounded along the battle front. We shall try to succor the homeless and wandering peoples of Poland, Lithuania, and Western Russia.

"We hope to extend aid to those who are fighting the battles of liberty in Rumania Serbia and Italy—indeed to relieve human misery everywhere among our Allies.

"We have set $100,000,000 as the minimum of our need. It is evident that we could use many times that amount. To administer these funds economically and efficiently we are developing an organization headed by some of the most competent and experienced business men in the country. They serve without pay.

"In due course we shall make a report to Congress so that the public may know the total amounts expended and how very small a percentage was found necessary for expenses.

"Before expending money, the most expert advice obtainable will be secured. Leaders in every line of related activity throughout the United States, have freely placed their counsel and services at out disposal.

"While we recognize the desirability of a specific budget, we can only say that our task is to relieve human misery upon a world-scale at a time when more people are suffering than ever before in the history of mankind; and we shall pursue this task under the guidance of the ablest experts in the world.

"The American people can rely, therefore, upon the fact that the Red Cross war fund of $100,000,000, or however much more than that the generosity of the public will enable us to use, will be administered as efficiently, as economically and as large-heartedly as we know how to do it.

"We believe firmly that the efforts of our Red Cross can be a vital and possibly a deciding agency in helping to win this war. To us, of the War Council, that is a humanitarian service in its highest sense and to render it effectively will be our paramount purpose."

LABOR UNIONS WIN SUIT

Power to Get Injunctions Against Them Limited to Government.

Injunctions against labor unions under the Sherman Anti-Trust law, the Supreme Court decided yesterday in dismissing proceedings against New York carpenters' unions can be secured only by the Government, and not by private persons. Justices McKenna, Van De Vanter and Brandeis dissented.

Injunction proceedings brought by "open shop" wood work manufacturers to restrain New York carpenters' unions and others from refusing to work on their products were dismissed by the court.

A nation-wide conspiracy in restraint of trade through a union rule against carpenters working on "open shop" or "unfair" mill work and trim was charged in the nonunion manufacturers' suit. The unions contended that the embargo was confined to New York and that the plaintiffs had not been especially injured by it, nor were they the subjects of special discrimination. The embargo, the unions declared, differed from the boycott held illegal in the "Danbury Hatters'" case.

Although passed after their suit was begun in 1904, the manufacturer contended that the Clayton act authorized issuance of injunctions to them. Its prohibition of anti-union injunctions, they asserted, operates only in suits between employers and employes and not between individual and unions.

Liberty Bond A Paying Investment

To keep young men of 19 and 20 out of the trenches is to throw all the might of America into the fight at once. This requires money, of course—MONEY.

It would be a proud boast for any city or town to be able to say that every man and woman in it had subscribed to a bond.

And why not? It is not a gift—it is an investment. It is putting money into the bank. It is storing up capital for the future use of the bond buyer. The bond can be used for a loan at any bank, or in case of need, it can be sold quickly. These are regular bonds of the U. S. government. The best in the world. Must a man be hit with a club to be induced to save?

Keep the young boys out of the trenches. End the war.
Buy a bond QUICK. The banks will help you.

THE LIBERTY LOAN COMMITTEE

SECRETARY VROOMAN'S SPEECH

Urged People to Buy the Liberty Bonds and Help End the War Quickly.

In his address in the interest of the Liberty bonds given in the opera house here last night, Hon. Carl S. Vrooman, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, said that the American people have not yet woke up to the fact that our country is at war, and it may be that they will not until some of the boys sent to fight Germany come back in caskets. He paid his respects to the food speculators of the country and called them "the Kaiser's allies in America." His pointed remarks brought forth rounds of cheers.

Continuing he said: "We are fighting the greatest military power the world has ever known, and we shall wake up to find that we will need every power we can exert. England's people were asleep and they didn't wake up until thousands of their best young men had been killed.

"Buy those Liberty bonds and help end the war quickly."

Samuel G. Brent presided and the Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison pronounced the invocation. Among those on the stage were Leo P. Harlow, chairman of the local bond committee; Robert L. Payne, John W. May, Robert S. Jones; C. S. Taylor Burke and Carroll Pierce.

MOB THREATENS SUSPECT

Posse With Drawns Guns Protects Alleged Slayer of Three.

Flemington, N. J., June 12—Caro Mayworen, 35 years old, farmhand, suspected of having murdered Mr. and Mrs. William H. Queen and their daughter at their home at Mount Pleasant last Thursday night, was captured last night at Milford, not far from the scene of the crime. The man was seen by two fishermen as he emerged from a clump of bushes, and they gave chase. Others joined in the pursuit, and Mayworen was taken into custody by deputy sheriffs.

A crowd of citizens attempted to take the prisoner from the officers, who held them at bay with drawn revolvers.

Mayworen was carrying an axe similar to the one with which it is believed the triple murder was committed. He slightly wounded a member of the posse with it before he was overpowered after being shot in the back by one of the officers.

Missing Since Reunion in Washington

William L. Robinson, 39 years old, of Greer, S. C., who was in Washington to attend the Confederate reunion last week, is reported missing since June 5. He is described as weighing 200 pounds, smooth face, black hair, attired in a black suit, brown soft hat and black Oxford shoes.

HUNT FOR SLACKERS ON

Washington Orders "Aggressive" Search for Draft Dodgers—U. S. Marshal Asks Aid of all.

Orders for the arrest of every man between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, who cannot show a certificate of registration for war service was issued yesterday by the provost marshal general. The order went into effect at nine o'clock last night.

An unrelenting search began this morning and everyone who is caught in the search will be made to register and will be placed in jail. Nobody will escape arrest unless he can furinsh some valid excuse for his failure to get on the draft books.

This action will be taken in compliance with an order sent out yesterday from Washington that anyone within the draft limits unable to produce the blue card showing that he had registered was to be arrested immediately and placed in jail.

Provost Marshal General Crowder, who is in charge of the national registration, sent word to the Governors of all the states instructing them to notify all police chiefs and sheriffs throughout their states to arrest all those who had failed to register and to deliver such men to the nearest agent of the Department of Justice. The telegram asked that an "aggressive, vigorous and effective campaign" be waged.

As was stated in yesterday's Gazette, the law requires that all police officers of any grade or class, whether township, county, city, State or Federal, must report those who have not registered. They are empowered to require any person subject to registration to produce the registration certificate.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS

Report Says the Government is to Have Concentration Camp on Belvoir Tract, Near Accotink.

The latest reports concerning military movements in this vicinity are to the effect that the government is to make use of what is known as the Belvoir tract, comprising about a thousand acres of land, near Accotink, ten miles south of this city, as a concentration camp for the training of troops. It is said that the work of putting the grounds in condition for the reception of the soldiers will begin this week and that a large force will be stationed there as soon as the place is in readiness for them.

The government already owns the lands on which the Belvoir tract is located, having purchased it a year or so ago, so that all that is necessary is to proceed to the work of placing them in shape for the occupancy of the troops.

Company D, of the Fifth Maryland Infantry, which arrived at Alexandria yesterday afternoon, and is encamped east of the Union Station, is in command of Captain Herbert A. Smith, and comprises 65 men. Two companies of the Fifth Maryland also arrived at Richmond yesterday near where it is expected they will go on duty guarding bridges, etc., it is said.

BARS UP AT SEAPORTS.

Nobody Allowed to Leave Country Without Passport.

The Government yesterday began to tighten restrictions governing travel between the United States and foreign countries. Secretary Redfield directed all steamship companies to accept no passengers for foreign ports, either American citizens or aliens; unless they possess passports from the State Department. The Department of Labor at the same time ordered its agents to be particularly careful in admitting persons into the country.

To put a double check on outgoing passengers, Mr. Redfield directed the shipping companies to accept no passports unless advised.

RELICS TO BE REMOVED

Thomas Fortune Ryan Purchases Mantels and Panels in Old City Hotel Building.

The old City Hotel structure, long an interesting Alexandria landmark from the fact that George Washington often visited the hostelry, is to be denuded of its relics of bygone days. Thomas Fortune Ryan, of New York, formerly of Virginia, has purchased the mantelpieces and panels in the first and second stories of the building and they will be removed and taken to New York where they will enter into a handsome residence shortly to be built. Mr. Ryan, it is said, paid $5,000 for the mantels and panels. They are in the rooms used for balls in the latter part of the eighteenth and early part of the nineteenth century.

What is now the City Hotel in Colonial days was known as Gadsby's Tavern. The 22d of February, 1798, was celebrated by a birthnight ball in this hostelry. Washington was present on the occasion.

The mantels which are of fine workmanship, extend the entire width of the rooms and the panels in the sides were made by skilled mechanics.

The City Hotel property is at present owned by the Misses Irwin, of Washington. Nearly half a century has passed away since it was used for hotel purposes. Previous to the civil war it was one of the most popular resorts in this section of the state. It was then conducted by the late Samuel Heflebower, and during the four years' conflict it was in charge of Robert M. M'Clure.

Many years ago it was leased by a dealer in second-hand aticles, and it has subsequently been used by others for similar purposes.

It has long been an interesting historic spot to visitors to Alexandria, who inspect the room, the mantels and panels for their old-time associations. But these relics will soon be far away in another section of the country.

DEATH OF R. M. PRETTYMAN.

Well-Known Citizen Succumbs to Paralysis at His Home Last Night.

Robert M. Prettyman, who was stricken by paralysis on Sunday night, died shortly after twelve o'clock last night at his home on Pitt street, between King and Cameron. He is survived by a widow, a son and a daughter, a brother, David W. Prettyman, and three sisters, Misses Mary, Lillie L. and Margaret V. Prettyman. The deceased was 69 years old and a son of the late Robert F. Prettyman, who for many years was a carriage manufacturer of Alexandria.

Mr. Prettyman was Past Regent of Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, financial secretary of the Owls, and former President of the Alexandria Trades Council. He had been employed as a blacksmith by the Southern Railway Company for 47 years.

NORWAY SENDING MISSION

Worried About Export Embargo Provision in Espionage Bill.

American Minister Schmedeman at Christiania has officially been informed that Norway is sending a trade mission to this country, headed by Fridtjof Nansen, the Arctic explorer, which will discuss "questions of importation and exportation and inform this Government of existing condition in Norway."

The European neutrals contiguous to Germany are alarmed by the export embargo powers in the Espionage bill which may cut them off entirely from American imports, and have issued earnest pleas to the United States not to enforce the legislation vigorously.

Control of the entire medical profession of the country will be given to President Wilson by a measure which has been approved by the ways and means and the finance committees of the House and will be submitted to Congress for enactment if physicians do not enlist up to the total of 20,000 needed.

DEATH NOTICE.

FIGHTING FOR OURSELVES.

It is recalled by a cotemporary that in the civil war the purpose for which the north was fighting was the preservation of the Union. But it was apparent to the far-seeing from the first that the result of the war would be the emancipation of the slaves. As the war went on, the opponents of Mr. Lincoln made every effort to persuade people that the war was being conducted to free the slaves, and many men, who were loyal to the Union but were not abolitionists, lost interest in the war. The draft riots in New York were due not so much to disinclination to serve in the army as to the wrath of the Irish, who were made to believe that they were to be compelled to fight for the negroes.

The present-day Copperheads are pursuing a similar course, and, as one exchange says, we are fighting for our rights on the high seas, which Germany persistently attacked. We are fighting Germany in Europe to avert the necessity of fighting Germany in our own country. We are fighting Germany as the only means of preserving the Monroe Doctrine, which is our primary line of defense against European autocracy. Decidedly, we are fighting in our own quarrel, and we are defending our own rights on land and sea.

But the result of breaking the military power of Germany will be the overthrow of autocracy and the establishment of a government of the people for the people and by the people. We are interested in bringing about that desirable result. It appeals strongly to our love of political liberty. But the overthrow of autocracy is only a byproduct of our contest to maintain American right. If we had submitted to the German submarine campaign we should have been obliged hereafter to accept the embargo of all our ports whenever two other nations fell to fighting.

But the Copperheads are trying now, as they did 54 years ago, to confuse the issues and make people suppose that one of the inevitable results of the war is the end for which we entered it. This is a wilful misrepresentation. We have not gone into this war to emancipate the German people. If they like the Hohenzollerns they are welcome to them. But the trouble is that they will not keep the Hohenzollerns at home. They follow them into foreign countries. They insist upon the primacy of Germany among the nations of the world, and our rights are just as great as those of Germany, and we are not going to have a military trust headed by Wilhelm II dominating the Western as well as the Eastern Hemisphere. We are not going to have our ports embargoed every time a war breaks out.

Most decidedly we have been attacked both by German submarines and by German plans of world domination. And we are in this war to protect ourselves and keep war as far as possible from our own boundaries.

PROPOSED JEWISH REPUBLIC.

Declaring that the Jews of the world must have a place at the peace table which will close the great war, a Zionists' meeting held at Petrograd yesterday was considering a Jewish republic in Palestine. Dr. Usihin, leading the move, declared a referendum was being planned to the 15,000,000 Jews in the world.

In this connection it may be stated that Lord Walter Lionel Rothschild, of the famous family of bankers has declared himself as a Zionist and has denounced the action of the British Committee of Jews opposed to the Zionist movement.

The aftermath of the present war is bringing to the birth many speculations. Apart from the political and economic results which are to follow, many persons believe that an era of peace during which the claims of Christianity will be acknowledged, will be in evidence.

The gathering together of the tribes of Israel and their location in the land of their forefathers is mentioned many times in both the Old and New Testaments. The orthodox Jews have never relinquished their faith in the eventual fulfillment of these forecasts, nor have close Bible students of all ages. The question, is the world about to see the consummation of these promises to the descendants of Abraham? is pertinent.

Turkish rule in Palestine is drawing to a close. The British are getting nearer and nearer the Holy Land, and its subjugation is the matter of a short time. Germany is endeavoring to prevent this, and has directed the Turks to resist the British as long as possible.

UNCERTAINTY OF NEWSPAPERS.

Among the items in a Richmond paper yesterday which had been clipped from its files of fifty years ago was one announcing that the Richmond Times had been purchased by Cowardin and Ellyson, publishers of the Dispatch, for $3,000.

The item brought to mind the skyrocket career of what was for a short time one of the most vigorous newspapers ever published south of Mason and Dixon's line. At the close of the civil war, when Richmond was under bayonet rule, it took considerable nerve to publish any reflections upon the military cast of the city. Several papers had survived the exigencies of war and were being printed upon worn-out type, when the Richmond Times made its bow to the people of the capital city. Charles Wynne had his name at the top of the editorial page, and the character of the articles which began to appear soon made the paper exceedingly popular. Everybody in Richmond wanted it, while people throughout the state subscribed to it. Advertisements flowed in also and in an incredibly short period the Times was one of the best paying newspapers in the south. It was set up in nonpareil and agate, the latter being used for advertisements, and, in accordance with the custom of those days, nothing larger than an agate cap line entered into any advertisement.

Upon one occasion the writer compared the Richmond Times with the New York Herald, and found that the former on that day carried more advertising matter than James Gordon Bennett's paper, then looked upon as the most prosperous journal, from an advertising standpoint, of any publication in America.

The career of the Times, however, was brief, We never understood the reason. It waned as fast as it had waxed, and eventually it was placed upon the market. As stated above the proporietors of the Dispatch purchased it, and the latter has since been known as the Times-Dispatch.

PLETHORA OF STRAWBERRIES.

Fine strawberries sold in the Alexandria market this morning at five cents a box. A number of people purchased the berries by the crate for the purpose of preserving them.

Strawberries begin to ripen hereabouts during the last half of the month of May. They come, however, from places in the south almost from the beginning of the year. When our crop began to appear it was thought that prices would be high throughout the short season. For some time the berries remained firm at prices which kept them from many, but last Saturday, as was stated in the Gazettee of that day, it was seen that during a few days this week prices would be low enough to enable most anybody to purchase them. The berries were selling at ten cents a box Saturday, and it was stated that these rates could not be maintained long.

As had been expected, there is a serious holdup in the New Jersey strawberry fields because of the scarcity of pickers. While it was looked for when the plants gave evidence of an immense yield, and efforts were made in many sections to take care of the crop, it has come so rapidly that much fruit will rot. Many carloads of pickers have been brought in, school boys and girls have enlisted in the work, but even then it is impossible to get all the berries picked. In some section growers are plowing up their patches and getting ready to plant something else.

Berries of the finest quality can be had in some section at six cents a box, if the buyer will pick them, and many housekeepers are availing themselves of this opportunity to preserve large quantities.

Trouble has been experienced with pickers, too. They have been paid two cents a box, but grasping the situation, struck for three cents. The growers became disgusted, "fired" the strikers and practically closed their fields.

CANDIDATE FOR HOUSE.

C. A. Sinclair of Manassas to Succeed C. J. Meetz in Next House of Delegates from Prince William County.

Manassas, June 12.—C. A. Sinclair, a member of the local bar, will succeed C. J. Meetze, in the next House of Delegates, as the member from Prince William county.

Mr. Sinclair was the only candidate for the Democratic nomination who complied with the law by filing his papers with the chairman of the Democratic committee sixty days before the date of the August primary; and under the law, there will be no election to nominate a candidate, as he automatically becamce the only Democratic candidate.

As this county is overwhelmingly Democratic, a nomination is tantamount to an election. Mr. Sinclair, who is a nephew of the late Judge Charles Sinclair ,will prove one of the strong men of the next House.

CAMP SITE NEAR CAPITAL.

Washington May Take Place of Petersburg for Big Cantonment.

With the abandonment of the plan to locate one of the sixteen army contonments at Petersburg, Va., it was believed possible last night that a site near Washington will be selected.

The fact that the proposed Petersburg site was within 6 miles of the Du Pont powder plant at Hopewell and the lack of proper rail facilities and labor conditions were responsible for the abandonment of work there. A delegation from Petersburg will arrive here today to protest against the action of the War Department.

The War Department yesterday announced four additional sites for camps as follows: Little Rock, Ark.; Louisville, Ky.; Battle Creek, Mich.; and Fort Sam Houston, Tex.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

C. A. Sinclair, a member of the Manassas bar, will succeed C. J. Meetze in the next House of Delegates, as the member from Prince William County. Mr. Sinclair was the only candidate for the Democratic nomination who complied with the law by filing his papers with the chairman of the Democratic committee sixty days before the date of the August primary, and, under the law, there will be no election to nominate a candidate, as he automatically becomes the only Democratic candidate. As Prince William county is overwhelmingly Democratic, a nomination is tantamount to an election. Sinclair is a nephew of the late Judge Charles Sinclair.

Calvin McCoy was arrested Sunday night at his home on Jewel Ridge, near Raven, Tazewell county, by United States Deputy Marshal M. B. Herron, charged with conspiracy. This is the same charge upon which his uncle, William V. McCoy, and J. W. Phipps are held for the United States Court. It is understood that government officers have been on the trail of McCoy ever since the arrest on May 26 of the other two men, who are alleged to be the leaders in an organized plot among mountaineers of the border counties to defy conscription and inaugurate and a regime of murder rapine, Governor Stuart being among their supposed intended victims.

On Sunday evening, while motoring in Maryland, an automobile, in whish were Robert and Richard Cooksey, Adin Laycock, John Royston and Harvey Castle, all young men of Leesburg, was struck by a freight train at Dobb's Switch, seriously injuring all in the car. They are now in the Loudoun Hospital in a critical condition.

HOW THEY WILL LOOK.

Description of the Liberty Bonds—Bureau of Engraving and Printing Working Day and Night.

Washington, June 12.—The Bureau of Engraving and Printing is working day and night in the production of Liberty Loan Bonds in accordance with designs approved by Secretary McAdoo. The Bonds are being engraved with artistic features and the embellishments in keeping with the purpose for which they are to be issued. R. M. Woolley, director of publicity for the Liberty Loan, gives the following description of the bonds:

The the engraving of the face of the bond, the title, "Liberty Loan of 1917," will appear in the upper border, and the denomination of the bond in the lower border, the latter being also in each of the four corners. The face will be printed in black with an overprinting of the denomination, number, seal and date in a color differing with each denomination and being the complementary color of that in which the back of the bond is to be printed. The vignette of Liberty from the Statue of Liberty Enlightening the World, in New York Harbor, designed by Bartholdi, will occupy a place on the right-hand side of the bond, and on the left side there will be a portrait of one of the Presidents of the United States, which will differ with each denomination.

The denominations of the Liberty Loan Bonds and the portraits and colors on the face of both the registered and coupon bonds will be as follows:

$ 50	Jefferson	Blue
100	Jackson	Blue
500	Washington	Orange
1,000	Lincoln	Carmine
5,000	Monroe	Green
10,000	Cleveland	Blue
50,000	McKinley	Carmine
100 000	Grant	Orange

The back of the coupon bonds will have the title and denomination in the center; on the right, the vignette of the Goddess of Freedom, from Crawford's figure on the dome of the United States Capitol; and on the left, an ornamental panel or border with an eagle in the center. These backs will vary in color with each denominations, as follows: $50, brown; $100, orange; $500, light blue; $1,000, green; $5,000, red; $10,000, brown; $50,000, olive, and $100,000, dark blue.

The bonds will be printed on distinctive paper of the government with silk fibre running through the bond. The Liberty Loan Bonds will be of the size established for Government bonds, being approximately 13 inches long and 6 inches wide.

While the backs of the coupon bonds will have ornamental engraved work, the backs of the registered bonds will carry a blank form of assignment. Coupon bonds will have attached to them three sheets of interest coupons, that is to say, 60 coupons for interest payments every six months for 30 years.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

In reply to the Russian government's request for a statement of the British war aims, Great Britain has forwarded to Petrograd a note in which it expressed hearty acceptance and approved of the principles which President Wilson laid down in his historic message to Congress. The British government believes, broadly speaking, that the agreements made from time to time with Britain's allies are conformable to these standards.

In an effort to check prohibition and local option sentiment, the Mercer County, N. J., Liquor Dealers' Association announces that henceforth free lunches will be eliminated in saloons and hotels in the county, and intoxicated persons will be refused liquor and sent home in taxicabs at the expense of the Liquor Dealers' Association. In addition, the request of any members of a family not to sell to another member will be obeyed, the sale of cheap whisky will be forbidden, and beer will be limited to 14 ounce glasses.

Four severe earthquake shocks did great damage at Terni, Italy, yesterday. One dispatch said that the entire population was fleeing from the city.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg believes that Germany will be able to enforce her own peace terms upon any league of hostile powers. He has sent a telegram to the Potsdam Union for a German peace saying that Germany will find the present war has not been fought in vain.

Records stolen from the confidential files of the United States navy lead Secretary Daniels to charge yesterday that there was either a traitor or a spy in the service. Indications were that the letters and documents had been filched from the Ordnance Department or the Indian Head Proving Ground, where the navy guns and ammunition are tested.

It was reported in London from Berlin yesterday afternoon that Santo Domingo has broken off diplomatic relations with Germany.

Two men were killed and at least 10 seriously injured yesterday at South River, N. J., when 100 strikers attacked strikebreakers and guards on their way to the Hermann Atkam handkerchief factory. The group of pickets, mostly Russians, rushed the armed guard of 20 men in an attempt to prevent the strikebreakers reaching the plant, and when one guard went down under a rain of missiles some some one gave the order to fire and a volley staggered the attackers. They left one of their leaders dead on the ground.

The London Chronicle's parliamentary correspondent says: "The optimisim created by the marked diminution in our shipping losses in the last three weeks is not shared in informed circles. It is true that greater success is being achieved with our anti-submarine devices, but the falling off in sinkings disclosed in the recent official returns is chiefly due to the fact that fewer U-boats were operating during this period, as many had gone home to refit. This was admittedly a surmise, and its correctness is proved by the fact that our most recent losses are decidedly heavier than the averages for the previous four weeks."

Seizure of the property of all alien enemies in the United States is a distinct possibility if Germany continues her present course toward American industries in Germany. The State Department yesterday unmasked the propaganda which Berlin has been carrying on to the effect that she is showing every courtesy to Americans, has no hostile feeling to this country, and wants no war with us. The only reason Germany is not carrying the war to America as she did to France and Belgium is that she hasn't the chance, it was declared at the department. "Germany is not bombarding our cities or shelling our coasts because she isn't in a position to do so," said Counsellor Frank L. Polk, "but she is sinking our ships and mistreating the Americans she takes as prisoners."

The Kaiser and the rulers who are fighting with him have 4,662,000 subjects in the United States. They constitute 4 1-2 per cent of the population of this country. These figures were made public yesterday afternoon by the Census Bureau, which stated that of the alien inhabitants 3,349,000 were from Germany, 1,376,000 from Austria, 188,000 from Turkey and 11,000 from Bulgaria. These estimates include men, women and children. The number of male aliens over 21 years of age is about 964,000.

The Germans who believe that the United States is not to be feared are deceiving themselves, is the opinion of Capt. Perseus, famous German naval critic of the Berlin Tageblatt. He warns Germany that by autumn the United States probably will have 150,000 men on the battlefield and that the United States fleet may join the British fleet in an attempt to destroy the German navy and attack the German coast defenses.

WANTS GERMANY DEFEATED.

Prince Kropotkin, on Return From Exile, Warns Against Peace.

Christiania June 12.—Prince Peter Kropotkin, the Russian Socialist leader, who has been in exile in England for many years and was invited to return home by the revolutionary government, has arrived in Christiania on his way from London to Petrograd. He issued a statement yesterday to the Norwegian press warning "all true friends of peace" against any attempt to hinder Germany's defeat.

"Such fantastic dreams as German domination from Berlin to Bagdad must be given up," he said. "France must have Alsace and Lorraine. The independence of Poland must be assured. Until that is done, Russia must and will fight for victory."

Discussing the military situation in Russia, the Prince said there was no question that the outlook was better than it would have been had the old regime remained.

"The revolution came just in the nick of time to prevent the disgrace of a separate peace," he said. "Negotiations between the old regime and the Germans had been virtually completed, and the old regime planned to sign a separate peace agreement two days later."

ROANOKE STRIKE SERIOUS.

More Men Walk Out—Contractors Declare They Will Not Grant Demands.

Roanoke, Va., June 12.—Strike of the local brotherhood of carpenters and joiners assumed more serious proportions yesterday morning when practically all the men employed by five of the six large planing mills here joined their brothers engaged in construction work who have been out for several days following the refusal of their demand for a nine-hour day and a minimum wage of thirty-five cents an hour.

Following a visit here Sunday of V. L. Nugent, State organizer of the brotherhood of bricklayers, that organization was in executive session yesterday considering the proposition of declaring a sympathetic walkout. B. M. Squires, of the department of labor at Washington was in Roanoke attempting to mediate the differences between the employers and the men, but his efforts appear to have failed, as prominent contractors and mill men declare they will contest the demands of the men to the last.

John P. Pettyjohn & Sons, who have the contract for the large freight and passenger stations of the Norfolk & Western, a new power-house for the Roanoke Railway & Electric Co. and additions to Hotel Roanoke, totalling nearly a million dollars, declared they will surrender their contracts before they will grant the demands.

VIRGINIA NEWS

A new element was injected into the "wooden ship" controversy yesterday by announcement of the award of contracts for sixteen wooden hulls, designed after the Hough plan, the first to be delivered April 1, next. Under the Hough design, urged by Engineers Eustis and Clark, of the Emergency Fleet Corporation, contractors had announced willingness to put up bond to begin delivery of hulls not later than November.

Eight hundred bottles of whisky were seized Sunday at Norfolk in a raid by revenue officers aboard the steamer Hamilton, of the Old Dominion Line. The liquor had been shipped from New York and was hidden in all parts of the vessel.

The Christian Church at Bowling Green was struck by lightning Saturday and burned. This is the fourth time this congregation has lost its buildings, three times on the same site.

In reply to a question in the British house of commons yesterday, Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer, announced that since the beginning of the war Great Britain had borrowed from the United States a total of $2,000,000,000. Chancellor Law said that the average daily expenditure of the government in the first nine weeks of the fiscal year worked out as $39,420,000.

John Carter, 33 years old, son of Clay Carter, of Caroline county, was struck by lightning Saturday and killed. He was standing in the door of Robert Farmer's store, near Bowling Green, during the storm. No one else in the store was hurt, although the shoes were partly torn from the feet of one man.

After attempting to assault 16-year-old Mary Day at the home of Virginia Mitchell, where she was caring for the 1-year-old Mitchell baby, Boss Smith, a negro, beat out the baby's brains. Smith was arrested.

The annual meeting of Washington and Lee Alumni was held yesterday as a part of the commencement exercises, F. S. Kirkpatrick, Lynchburg, was elected president; John L. Campbell, Lexington, secretary-treasurer and Edward L. Graham, Lexington, chairman of the executive committee.

The Senate yesterday afternoon, at the risk of much further delay in making available urgently needed funds for the conduct of the war, voted, 48 to 22, to send the $3,340,000,000 army and navy budget back to conference with instructions to the conference to insist on the $3,000,000 appropriation for the purchase of the Jamestown Exposition site for a new naval operating base in Hampton Roads. The House rejected the appropriation several days ago.

Mrs. Reginald Brooks, daughter of C. D. Langhorne, of Greenwood, Va., was married quietly in London last Saturday to the Hon. Robert H. Brand, partner in the banking firm of Lazard Bros and Co. Mrs. Brooks was formerly Phyllis Langhorne. She obtained a divorce from Mr. Brooks in 1915, and was reported to have been engaged to marry Capt. the Hon. George Harry Douglas-Pennant, of the Grenadier Guards who was killed in battle in March, 1915. Mrs. Brooks was one of five sisters who were noted for their beauty, the others being Mrs. Waldorf Astor, of London; Mrs. Moncure Perkins, of Richmond, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, of New York, and Mrs. Paul Phipps, of London.

—Difficulties—

No organization, however careful, can be absolutely error-proof. Service difficulties do arise—a few of them every day.

Some are caused by conditions we cannot control; some the fault of telephone users; some just human errors that even a high degree of supervision cannot prevent.
